Re: State of New York v. DirectRevenue

Dear Mr. Celli:

Pursuant to our letter agreement dated March 2, 2006, you have advised us that you are counsel to DirectRevenue, LLC ("Direct Revenue") and that you have agreed to accept all legal papers and pleadings on its behalf with respect to this matter. You are hereby notified that it is the intention of the Attorney General to commence litigation against Direct Revenue, pursuant to New York Executive Law Section 63(12), General Business Law ("GBL") Sections 349 and 350 and New York common law to enjoin various unlawful and deceptive acts and practices and to obtain disgorgement, damages, civil penalties, costs and/or such other relief as the Court may deem proper. The acts and practices complained of consist of:

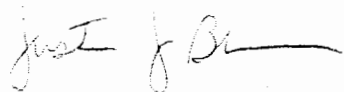

1. repeatedly and persistently engaging in deceptive acts and practices in connection with the dissemination of various advertising, redirecting, ad serving, behavior monitoring and related software over the internet;
2. repeatedly and persistently installing such software onto computers without providing sufficient notice or obtaining user consent;
3. repeatedly and persistently designing such software to be difficult to locate and remove from a computer;

4. repeatedly and persistently using such software to deliver constant and misleading advertisements;

5. repeatedly and persistently using this software's backdoor access to users' computers to install newer versions of the software, along with other software programs.

Please be advised that, pursuant to Sections 349(c) and 350-c of the GBL, you are hereby afforded the opportunity to show orally or in writing, within five business days after receipt of this notice, why such proceedings should not be instituted.

Sincerely,

Justin Brookman

Re: State of New York v. DirectRevenue

Dear Mr. Strassberg:

Pursuant to our letter agreement dated March 2, 2006, you have advised us that you are counsel to Joshua Abram, Alan Murray, Daniel Kaufman and Rodney Hook (the "individual respondents") and that you have agreed to accept all legal papers and pleadings on their behalf with respect to this matter. You are hereby notified that it is the intention of the Attorney General to commence litigation against the individual respondents, pursuant to New York Executive Law Section 63(12), General Business Law ("GBL") Sections 349 and 350 and New York common law to enjoin various unlawful and deceptive acts and practices and to obtain disgorgement, damages, civil penalties, costs and/or such other relief as the Court may deem proper.
