We have a very stealthy version of our eWave product which we’re happy to give u. The little pieces—like the 406 and the microbuyer are custom integrations. Don’t worry. If we do a deal—and a build together—these will not be caught.

Best,

J

Do you have a newer, more stealthy version of your software we can try?

Can you firm up a date for MediaCom and you guys for next week. All dates are ok except for Friday, the 6th. We need to be back here on the 6th.
