Mindset Interactive, the owner of Addictive Technologies is a private held company based in Irvine , CA . We are a full service Online Marketing and Software company that started in business in 1999 with a vision to create cool consumer software applications. Starting off with screensavers, we quickly grew to also build a suite of other software products, these include: A custom PC based planner that provides many of the best features of Outlook in a brandable "skin" We followed up with other types of interactive games. Some of our clients include: Warner Bros, The NFL Tennessee Titans, Southern California Edison, and many others. We have licensed a suite of games that we now give away for free to consumers from our game site <http://web.archive.org/web/20041110004226/http://www.at-games.com/>. Included with our games we make available some of the best new online Software applications "freeware" that provide special offers to our clients.
