Josh, any mention of <http://www.softwareonline.com/> in our client list?
I'm attaching screenshots of their ads.

I am getting MyPctuneup.com-type ads to remove adware from a company called <http://www.softwareonline.com>.

Forgot to check to make sure it is coming from us, but it's either us or someone we bundle with. We probably want to shut this one off if we can, and if it's a bundle partner I'll try to track down who.
